It has been another busy week at Sinnington with everyone working hard and learning new things.

Donaldson:

Donaldson class have been out in the playground practising their compass directions North, South, East and West this week plus they have all written an excellent letter to Mummy Bear to say whether they have forgiven Goldilocks or not. There were also some good arguments made for both sides.

Dahl:

Dahl class have been working hard on their equivalent fractions and continuing their project, 'Who needs the Rainforest?' In English, the children have been reading The Great Kapok Tree and investigating why deforestation is happening and whether this is right or not.

Rowling:

Rowling class have also been working on fractions: finding equivalents and then both adding and subtracting them. The class had Konflux Theatre in on Thursday to do a WW1 play in a day- 'All the King's Men'. Thank you to all the parents that were able to attend, the class did a n amazing performance. Diaries from the front have also been the focus of our Writing and Project work with some excellent description and emotion. The class also had a visit from Romy's Grandad (Geoff) who gave an excellent talk about his WW1 memorabilia – Thank you Geoff.

Sinnington's new Core Values:

After a lot of deliberation, we now have a new set of School Values to share with everyone. We have had contributions from all staff members and a number of parents too. Thank you to everyone who made the time to contribute. The new school values and logo (there will be no changes made to uniform) are:

Christmas Fair - Wednesday 5th December 5.30 – 7pm

The Christmas Fair is less than three weeks away now, and we are busy planning stalls and activities for the event. Games or activities for the children to get involved in are always popular, and we are looking for some fresh ideas this year. So if you have any suggestions of something that you have seen at other school events or Christmas fairs, then please let us know. We would also need volunteers to run the activity or game on the night, so again please contact us if you can help. You can either contact Cath in the office or post a comment on the FOSS facebook page.

We will be holding a non uniform day on Friday 30th November, we ask that the children bring in a bottle for the bottle tombola (please check use by dates on items to ensure they are still in date by the time of the Christmas Fair.)

BBC Children In Need

We all dressed in best spots or PJ's and raised an excellent £138.40p. Thank you everyone who took part.
